On 12 January, the annual High-Flyer Awards presentation, organized by the publishing group Edipresse (Hong Kong Business magazine), was held at the Armani Bar of Chater House in Hong Kong.

For the 2008 award, Hong Kong Business selected the city's most outstanding companies, which have forged ahead in this challenging environment with great achievements.

DB Schenker has been one of the 29 companies from all industries that have been awarded as a 'High-Flyers Outstanding Enterprise 2008'. On behalf of DB Schenker, Ms. Jessie Lai, Head of Marketing and Travel Services, China, participated to receive the award.

Although the current economic uncertainties affect every organization, the atmosphere was good and the entrepreneurs showed their corporate spirit and confidence to encounter the severe challenges ahead.
